

Commerce High School

Newsletter October 2018

DATES TO REMEMBER

- 11/1: Band/Choir to Veteran's Hunt Flag Raising
- 11/2: Professional Day
- 11/7: Club Pictures/Retakes
- 11/8-11: FCCLA to Louisville, KY
- 11/9: Veteran's Day Assembly & Lunch
- 11/10: Quiz Bowl Team to Regional in Chelsea
- 11/12: School Board Meeting 6:30 z
- 11/14: PreACT for all Sophomores
- 11/19-23: Thanksgiving Break
- 11/30: Miss & Mr. Merry Christmas 10:45

Chris Ibarra was awarded the "Performer of the Week" from KODE Channel 12, Oct. 15, 2018. Pictured left to right are: George Balekji, Chris Ibarra, Ethan Schmidt & Coach Potete. Congratulations Chris!!

Senior Night was held Oct 26th before the game with Ketchum. 19 seniors & their parents were recognized. The Seniors represented Band, Cheer, Football and Softball. Kendall Reading was recognized for his 40 years of service to CHS Football.

Ms. Bolles classes painted signs for all the support staff for Support Staff Week. Mums, goodie bags, gift cards and lunch was provided for all the support

Art Club spent many hours working on Halloween decorations. Art Club members are: Carla Ybarra, Ashley Brown, Cheyenna Baker, Elijah Hamilton, Faith Herbert, Blake Judd, Shayla Crafton, and Jayven Elias.

Hayden Moss & Carla Ybarra were crowned Homecoming King & Queen before the OK Union game on Oct. 12th. The Homecoming court: Jacob Bachman (Senior Rep), Dora Hussong (Senior Rep), Calvin Howard (STUCO), Abigail Weaver (Academic Team), Omar Dominguez (NHS), Madyson Kollmeyer (NHS), King Hayden Moss (Football), Queen Carla Ybarra (Spanish), Gabriel Gonzalez (Spanish), Madi Wells (Cheer), Tyler Gravison (Band), Ryleigh Bailey (Band), Juan Herrera (Senior Rep), Elise Siler (Art), Brandon Brown (Senior Rep), Taylor Shackelford (FCA), Crown Bearer: Carter Beckwith Flower Girl: Malliza Ross

NHS held The Pink Out Ceremony for cancer survivors Oct. 26th. All Cancer Survivors were invited to the middle of the field for a balloon release and dedication to their loved ones. NHS would like to thank FCCLA for their contributions of the balloons.