POLICY OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

CIVIL DEFENSE PLAN

Civil defense plans for student care in case of an emergency such as a tornado, etc., is as follows - students in the elementary school will be moved to the halls of the elementary school. Students in the junior high will be moved to the basement. Students in the high school will be sent to the restrooms and the inside rooms at the high school. The Board agreed that parents should be encouraged to pick up children prior to a storm but all other students kept in school during the regular hours follow the emergency plan and the plan be observed.
